

FORGOTTEN HEROES

BOMBER COMMAND MEMORIAL APPEAL EXHIBITION

29th June to 3rd July 2009

DAVID SHEPHERD EXHIBITION TOURS

The Battle of Britain Memorial Flight is proud to host the first ever exhibition of David Shepherd's private collection of paintings at RAF Coningsby.

The exhibition will include previously unseen paintings from David's private collection and those commissioned by the RAF in his formative years.

Paintings from across the RAF will be displayed amongst the historic and iconic aircraft for this one-off event.

Tickets for this prestigious event cost £10:00, concessions, OAP's and children under 16 - £8:00

David Shepherd, CBE, FRSA, FRGS is one of the country's best-known artists and one of the world's most outspoken conservationists. While he is most famous for his paintings of wildlife, especially endangered species, he also paints railways, aircraft and landscapes.

This exhibition offers a rare opportunity to view many paintings from his private collection which have hardly ever been seen before in public, and a number of paintings David did for the RAF which, again, have never before been on public view.

Tour tickets can be purchased by sending cheques payable to "BCMA", with this form, in an envelope, clearly marked "BCMA Exhibition" to: The Battle of Britain Memorial Flight, RAF Coningsby, Lincoln LN4 4SY. Please also enclose a SAE for the despatch of your tickets.
